From the Committee

Another year has passed and the group continues to grow. The New Year has started and as you can see from above we have a new committee who will do their best to help you in researching and compiling your family history.

As you know from our earlier communications, Colin Withall, the Editor of both our News Sheet and The Compass did not nominate for the position, so we have big shoes to fill! An editorial committee has formed to produce the News Sheet that keeps members up to date with information such as our speaker nights, events etc. They will also be producing The Compass and will be seeking articles from members. We would be pleased to receive any contributions that you would like to offer.

Members will remember the beautiful costumes that Sandy Whitelaw showed to one of our Thursday Speaker Night last year. Sandy has kindly accepted to come back on 18TH AUGUST, together with members of the Costumer's Guild to dance and show 19th Century costumes. We are sure this will be very well attended.

Also, National Family History Week begins on the 29th July and we have decided to have a special OPEN DAY on Thursday 4th August 2011 with a demonstration of Ancestry.com by Ivan Randall and Michael Smith at 2.00 pm. Our President Peter Applebee will talk at 7.00 pm on the TROVE Newspaper website. We look forward to seeing as many of our members as possible to both events on the 4th August.

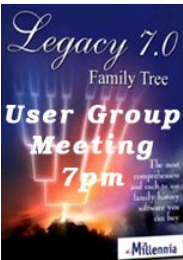

The full calendar of events can be found further into the News Sheet.
